"Thousands of customers have benefited from Oman Air's latest Spring Sale, which has met with very strong demand within the Sultanate. The discounts we offered represented outstanding value and were snapped up in record time.

"Customers who took advantage of this sale are now set to enjoy the ultimate in 21st Century air travel. Our rapidly-growing fleet of aircraft offer comfortable and spacious cabins and the latest inflight entertainment technology. These are complemented by our trademark Omani hospitality and delicious inflight dining. Furthermore, the convenience of services such as our online check-in, and the luxury of our airport lounges, make flying with Oman Air a joy.

"We are constantly creating new opportunities for our customers to experience our award-winning products and services. We look forward to announcing more great deals in the future, and to welcoming many more new customers to Oman Air"

The Spring Sale included many of Oman Air's key destinations across the Middle East, Asia, East Africa and Europe. Fares to Dubai fell as low as OMR 39 for Economy Class seats. Meanwhile, bookings to Abu Dhabi, Manama and Tehran were available for OMR 89 in Economy Class and OMR 250 in Business Class. And flights to Amman, Beirut and Cairo were offered at just OMR 99 per person in Economy Class and OMR 300 in Business Class.

A range of destinations in South Asia was also included within the sale. These included Karachi for OMR 79 in Economy Class and OMR 250 in Business Class, with flights to Bengaluru, Goa, Colombo and the Maldives all available for as little as OMR 129 for Economy Class bookings and OMR 400 for Business Class.

In South East Asia, Economy Class bookings to the premium destinations of Kuala Lumpur, Singapore and Jakarta could be purchased for just OMR 179, with Business Class seats offered for OMR 550. And customers could make the most of flights to Dar Es Salaam and Zanzibar, in the East African nation of Tanzania, for as little as OMR 149 in Economy Class, or OMR 450 in Business Class.

Travellers to Europe were also able to make major savings, with flights to Frankfurt, Munich, Paris, Milan and Zurich offering seats for only OMR 169 in Economy Class, or OMR 600 in Business Class.

All prices quoted are for return flights per person, and include taxes and surcharges. Whilst Spring Sale flights were available to buy only between 3rd and 7th May, travel could be taken as late as 10th July 2015.
